

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF GEORGIA BRUNSWICK DIVISION

DAVID MCCLOUD,

Plaintiff,

v.

STEVEN SCARLETT; JACKIE JOHNSON;
NEAL JUMP; and GLYNN COUNTY
GEORGIA,

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION NO.: 2:19-cv-122

ORDER

This matter is before the Court on Plaintiff's pro se complaint under 42 U.S.C. § 1983.

Doc. 1. For the reasons that follow, the Court ORDERS Plaintiff to file an Amended Complaint within 14 days of this Order. Failure to comply with this Order within the allotted time or to show cause why Plaintiff is unable to comply will result in a recommendation to the presiding District Judge that the case be dismissed without further notice for failure to prosecute and failure to follow a Court Order.

A federal court is required to conduct an initial screening of all complaints filed by prisoners and plaintiffs proceeding in forma pauperis. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a); 28 U.S.C. § 1915(a). During the initial screening, the court must identify any cognizable claims in the complaint. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(b). Additionally, the court must dismiss the complaint (or any portion of the complaint) that is frivolous, malicious, fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, or which seeks monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. Id. The pleadings of unrepresented parties are held to a less stringent standard than those drafted by attorneys and, therefore, must be liberally construed. Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519, 520 (1972). However, a plaintiff's unrepresented status will not excuse mistakes regarding procedural rules. McNeil v. United States, 508 U.S. 106, 113 (1993).

A plaintiff's complaint should contain a "short and plain statement" of the plaintiff's claims, and each allegation in the complaint should be "simple, concise, and direct." Fed. R. Civ. Procedure 8(a)(2), (d). In order to state a claim upon which relief may be granted, a complaint must contain "sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to 'state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.'" Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009) (quoting Bell Atl. Corp. v. Twombly, 550 U.S. 544, 570 (2007)). To state a claim, a complaint must contain "more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic recitation of the elements of a cause of action will not" suffice. Twombly, 550 U.S. at 555.

A plaintiff is not necessarily required to bring a separate action for each individual claim against each individual defendant. In some circumstances, the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure allow a plaintiff to name multiple defendants in a suit and to assert multiple claims in a single suit. Specifically, a plaintiff may name multiple defendants in a single action, but only if he asserts at least one claim against those defendants that arises from the same transaction, occurrence, series of transactions or occurrences, or if any question of law or fact common to all defendants will arise in the action. Fed. R. Civ. P. 20(a)(2). Additionally, a plaintiff may assert multiple claims against a properly joined defendant in the same action. Fed. R. Civ. P. 18(a).

Plaintiff appears to bring claims against Defendants Steven Scarlett, Jackie Johnson, Neal Jump, and Glynn County, Georgia, related to an arrest, pretrial detention, and a criminal prosecution in state court, where the prosecution was apparently dismissed in 2017. Doc. 1 at 3–7. However, the Court is unable to determine what legal claims Plaintiff intends to assert.

Further, Plaintiff fails to adequately state what each Defendant did or did not do in support of the various claims.

Accordingly, the Court ORDERS Plaintiff to file an Amended Complaint within 14 days of this Order. The Amended Complaint must comply with the following directions. The Court advises Plaintiff to read and follow these directions carefully:

- (1) the Amended Complaint must be on the court-approved civil rights complaint form to be used by prisoners in actions arising under 42 U.S.C. § 1983;¹
- (2) the Amended Complaint must be clearly labelled “Amended Complaint” and place the civil action number of this case on the first page of the form;
- (3) No more than 10 pages may be attached to the form (this includes written allegations and attachments);
- (4) the Amended Complaint must be legible with writing on only one side of each page;
- (5) each intended defendant must be identified by name or by sufficient details to describe the individual;
- (6) the Amended Complaint should include only factual allegations concerning events where the rights of Plaintiff himself were violated or Plaintiff himself was injured, including the date and location of each alleged violation;
- (7) the Amended Complaint should only assert claims that arose from the same transaction or occurrence or series of related transactions or occurrences;
- (8) describe each alleged violation and identify each defendant responsible for each alleged violation;
- (9) omit all legal argument or conclusions;

Once filed, Plaintiff’s Amended Complaint will supersede and replace his original Complaint. Therefore, Plaintiff’s Amended Complaint must not refer back to the initial ¹ The Court DIRECTS the Clerk of Court to send the appropriate 42 U.S.C. § 1983 complaint form and a copy of this Order to Plaintiff.

Complaint or any of its attachments and must not incorporate any part of the original Complaint by reference. Claims made against particular defendants in Plaintiff's original Complaint are not preserved unless they are also set forth in the Amended Complaint.

Failure to comply with this Order within the allotted time or to show cause why Plaintiff is unable to comply will result in a recommendation to the presiding District Judge that the case be dismissed without further notice for failure to prosecute and failure to follow a Court Order.

Additionally, the Court ORDERS Plaintiff to advise the Court in writing of any change of address during the pendency of this action. Plaintiff's failure to abide by this directive will result in the dismissal of Plaintiff's Complaint, without prejudice, for failure to follow an Order of this Court.

SO ORDERED, this 8th day of June, 2020.
